Federation of Southern Cooperatives:

Southern Alternatives Agricultural Cooperative

SAAC in southwest Georgia produces fair trade shelled pecans and pecan candies. Led by women, SAAC is the only African American-owned pecan-shelling facility in the U.S. These lifelong advocates have crafted a business that creates new jobs for workers and strengthens local, rural economies.

NHAF NATIONAL HMONG AMERICAN FARMERS

Items are hand-made by Hmong women artisans who pass their knowledge and skills from mother to daughter.

The pillowcase-size story-telling quilts are often displayed on a wall to describe migration from their home countries to the U.S.

Pattern quilts represent different aspects of their lives, including agriculture.

Quilts are $100 each
Sand-stuffed animals are $15 each
